Pacifica Promotes Rebecca Garland and Tobias Tobler to Partnership

SEATTLE, WA— Pacifica Law Group is excited to announce the promotions of Rebecca Garland and Tobias Tobler to partnership.

A specialist in e-discovery for complex litigation matters, Rebecca joined Pacifica in 2019 as part of the firm's Litigation Practice Group. Her discovery management practice is a cornerstone of the Litigation Group's work, and she also supports other firm practice groups and their clients, including with Public Records Act matters.

Toby joined Pacifica's Public Law and Finance Practice Group in 2020, and has since worked on governmental bond issues for a range of county, city, utility, school district, and public university clients. Toby brings particular expertise to Pacifica's public finance practice in the areas of federal securities law, state tax and election law, and public school finance.

Both Rebecca and Toby contribute significantly to the growth of the firm and embody its commitment to public service. Rebecca leads the firm's E-Discovery Committee and volunteers with nonprofit and legal industry organizations, including WithinReach and the Washington State Bar Association's Legal Technology Task Force's Impact on Courts Workgroup. Toby is a member of Pacifica's Equity and Inclusion Team, and also serves on the Civil Topics Committee for the Washington State Association of Municipal Attorneys and on the Board of the Puget Sound Finance Officers Association.

"We are delighted to welcome Rebecca and Toby into the partnership," said Pacifica Managing Partner Denise Stiffarm. "They are both exceptional attorneys and committed stewards of the firm and its values. They are also wonderful, supportive colleagues. We look forward to their continued growth and success."
